FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Langlade Hospital and Aspirus Welcomes Dr. Patrick McKenna

(Antigo, WI) – (November 2011) – Dr. Patrick McKenna joins the Langlade Hospital and Aspirus family this November.

An Antigo native, Dr. McKenna, son of Joe McKenna and Ann (Payant) Duffek, received his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health and completed his residency at the University of Wisconsin – Madison. Dr. McKenna has special interests in routine obstetrics, minor office procedures, palliative care and end-of-life care.

Dr. McKenna is married to Tonya McKenna Trabant and they have two children. He enjoys spending time with his family, playing basketball, gardening, and cooking. Dr. McKenna returns to Antigo where his uncle Dr. John McKenna has practiced medicine for over 50 years.

“I am really excited to be coming back home to practice medicine, to rejoin the community and ski at Kettlebowl” says Dr. McKenna.

“We welcome Dr. Patrick McKenna back home to Antigo and to our Hospital family. Dr. McKenna continues what has now become a long McKenna family tradition of compassionate, dedicated and enthusiastic medical care to the people of Antigo and Langlade County,” says Dave Schneider, Executive Director for Langlade Hospital.
